- 1. It was learned, that all German employees of the Strausberg (N 55/V 15) interpreter school had been given a sudden notice of dismissal.
- 2. A Russian woman employed at the school called at a bath and X-ray establishment and wanted her prepaid money refunded because "the school would be moved as there would be war".

Comment:

A report of April 1949 mentioned a school for 200 signal communication woman auxiliaries per training course in the former Landeserziehungsheim on Klosterstrasse, Strausberg. This may be the school mentioned in the report.
